

The Eastern Community Legal Centre would like to proudly Acknowledge the First Nations Peoples of Victoria, sovereign custodians of the land and water on which we rely. We respectfully acknowledge their Lore, traditions and customs that have survived over 60,000 years of existence, as well as honouring those who have since passed on to the Dreaming. We thank the Elders for their guidance, their wisdom and their teachings, and endeavour to support Elders in Community within our capabilities. We thank the Community leaders who laid the foundations and whose continued work has paved the way for our ongoing support in Community.

We acknowledge the continued leadership role of the Aboriginal Community in addressing, and preventing family violence, including Elder abuse, and join with our First Nations Peoples to prevent Elder abuse from occurring.

ROSE
Rights of Seniors in the East

Are you being mistreated by someone you trust?

ROSE is a confidential, respectful and free service providing legal, social and financial counselling support to older people experiencing abuse.

A partnership between Eastern Community Legal Centre and Oonah Belonging Place.

What is Elder Abuse?

Everybody has the right to live in safety, to be treated with dignity and respect, and to make their own decisions. Some older people are denied these rights, often by the people who are closest to them.

Elder Abuse is any act which causes harm to an older person and is carried out by someone they know and trust.

Often, that person is a family member or carer, but it could be a friend or neighbour whom an older person depends on.

The abuse can be financial, psychological, emotional, physical or sexual. It can also involve deliberate social isolation or neglect.

Examples include:

- Calling you names
- Taking your money and things without your permission or knowledge
- Pressuring you to change your will or power of attorney
- Physically hurting you
- Pressuring you to give them your money, house or things
- Threatening to harm you, someone else or your things

Stopping Elder Abuse before it starts

Elders are the knowledge keepers and teachers who hold great respect within the Community, and are at the centre of every family. Elders should be valued and respected for their vital role they play in keeping culture and Lore alive throughout generations. They have every right to enjoy their later years as they graciously share their knowledge of lived experience.

We can all do our bit to prevent Elder Abuse.

Getting Information & Support

The ROSE team of professionals can meet you discreetly at an ECLC office, a location near you or by phone. You can bring a support person to your appointment.

ROSE will arrange a FREE interpreter, cultural supports and disability supports for you too, if needed. So, if you identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander and are 50 years+ and you feel this may be you, contact ROSE for a confidential discussion.

If you are worried about yourself or someone you know, please call ROSE on 0429 697 960 or 1300 325 200.

Reducing the risk of Elder Abuse

- Getting independent legal advice about your Will & Power of Attorney
- If you have an adult child returning home to live with you, getting support to set out
- Expectations and boundaries for behaviour, financial contributions and more
- Accessing support and advice as soon as possible if you have an adult child experiencing mental illness or addiction

The ROSE team

The Community Lawyer can provide legal advice about your rights and options, and conduct legal casework and advocacy.

The Advocate can provide information and support you with:

- Ongoing risk assessments and helping to develop a detailed safety plan
- Referrals to specialist services
- Ongoing case management support
- Advocacy
- Emotional and practical support and link you with other services who may be able to help

The Financial Counsellor can assist with:

- A holistic assessment of your financial situation
- Information on your rights and obligations as a consumer
- Options to manage your debt concerns
- Suggest ways to improve your financial situation
- See if you're eligible for government concessions or support
- Advocacy and negotiating on your behalf with, for example, banks, pay day lenders, telecommunication providers, utility providers, and dispute resolution bodies

ROSE provides free legal, social and financial counselling support to people who are experiencing or are at risk of experiencing elder abuse.
